Academy organize workshop on cultural awareness among students.

J&K Academy of Art, Culture and Languages, as a part of its campaign to create cultural awareness among students, today organized a 3-day workshop on the topic "cultural awareness among students" at Seminar Hall of the Academy Complex, Lal Mandi, Sgr. The inaugural session was attended by the students from various educational institutions. The first lecture was delivered by Gnan Peath Awardee Prof. Rehman Rahi, followed by former HOD Kashmiri, Kashmir University Prof. Shafi Shouq.

The workshop is an initiative by Hon'ble Minister for Finance, Labour, Employment and Culture Mr. Haseeb Drabu to create cultural awareness among the students and arrange lectures by the prominent cultural leiterates of the State. The students are also supposed to express their views and pose their questions so as to clear their concepts.

In his inaugural address, Secretary Academy Mr. Haroon Rashid analysed the various activities of the Academy in carrying forward the movement of culture in the state of J&K.

Prof. Rehman Rahi delivered lecture on the topic "Language and Culture" while Prof. Shafi Shouq delivered lecture on "Culture and written word".

The Principals of various schools have welcomed this initiative and impressed upon the Academy to carry forward this legacy.

Proceedings of the function were conducted by Sh. M. Ashraf Tak, Chief Editor of the Academy.
