

Singers lend voices to Bahu Fort festival

At JKAACL's musical evening artistes receive thundering rounds of applause

Jammu, April, 18, 2013

The Bahu Fort lawns Thursday reverberated with renderings of impactful verses by budding and established singers of Jammu region. The musical evening, organized by J&K Academy of Art, Culture and Languages, left audience spell-bound for more than two hours in jam-packed Aquarium lawns here this evening. The program, presented on the eve of Bahu fort festival, saw several budding and established singers perform amid thundering rounds of applause from an appreciative audience. First the upcoming Sonali Dogra started with Mata Shera Waaliye...

Then singer Rakesh Salathia enthralled the audience with his song As Dogra Haan... Another singer – Sumit Kumar - sang Tu Maane Ya Na Maane Dildara... which was well received by the audience with thundering rounds of applause. Other singers who mesmerised the audience with their powerful renditions of impactful poetry include Raman Salathia, Nirbhay Salathia, Mohinder Soni and Bishan Dass.

The event was supervised by Academy's Additional Secretary, Jammu, Savita Bakshi while Choreographer, Randhir Kumar coordinated the programme. Musicians who made the evening a memorable one through their soothing tones included Darbari Lal, Rakesh Anand, Rohit Kumar, and Arvind.
