

Seminar on Kashmiri folk literature held at Banihal

Banihal, October 28, 2013

As part of its activities to promote literature, J&K Academy of Art, Culture & Languages today organized a day-long seminar on Kashmiri Folk Literature during which several scholars and writers presented papers on different aspects of the topic.

Held at the Government Boys Higher Secondary School here, the seminar was presided over by noted writer and teacher of Kashmiri language, Prof Margoob Banihali who also presented his paper on Kashmiri proverbs and metaphors in the historical backdrop.

Prof Farooq Faiyaz, Ghulam Nabi Aatash and Manshoor Banihali also presented papers titled Kashmiri Theatre- Past and Present, Kashmiri Folk Songs –A Mirror of Our Social Life and Kashmiri Folk Tales and Kashmiri Creative Mind, respectively.

Principal of the college, Muhammad Iqbal Khan, Additional Secretary Academy, Dr. A. S. Amn, writers and poets and a large number of students attended the seminar and took part in the deliberations.
