

Dolwal accorded warm send-off

Jammu, March, 30, 2013

J&K Academy of Art, Culture and Languages accorded a warm and affectionate send-off to one of its senior officers, Shamima Akhter Dolwal, who retired as additional secretary today. Secretary Academy, Khalid Bashir Ahmad, along with Additional Secretary Jammu, Savita Bakshi, and other senior officers of the Academy attended the farewell.

With a wide-ranging experience in cultural event management, Dolwal served the Academy for more than two decades in different capacities rising between the ranks to one of the important posts. Secretary Academy recalled the services of the lady officer in successfully organising cultural programmes and commended her role as important in the remarkable journey of the Academy. He wished the officer a happy post retirement life. Terming her as a lovable person, additional secretary, Savita Bakshi said that she would remember Dolwal for her valuable contribution to Academy.

Airing his views, editor Kashmir Insight, G.R. Hasrat Gadda, an ex employee of the Academy, said given her talent Dolwal will spend retired life with meaningful pursuits. Besides other members of the Academy, Dolwal's colleagues, Neeru Sharma and Azra Choudhary also spoke on the occasion. Later the employees of the Academy presented gifts and bouquets to the retiring additional secretary and wished for her happy, healthy and long life.

Chief editor, Gojri, Dr. Javaid Rahi conducted the programme.
