

Academy holds festival of plays, multifarious activities to commemorate

Vivekananda

Jammu, April 1, 2014

J&K Academy of Art, Culture & Languages today started a 5-day festival of plays in commemoration of the 150th anniversary of Swami Vivekananda. The plays will be staged in different parts of Jammu. The plays will spread the message of the Swami and create awareness about it among the people.

The first play of the series was staged today at Nagrota. A large number of people witnessed the play. Other four plays will be staged at Vijaypur on April 2, Akhnoor on April 3, R S Pura on April 4 and Jammu on April 5.

Pertinently, as part of activities to commemorate the 150th anniversary of Swami Vivekananda, the Academy held a five-day All India Painting Camp at Mansar from March 26. The painting camp attended by artists from within and outside the State, concluded on March 30. Besides, seminars were held at Jammu and Srinagar in Hindi, Kashmiri and Punjabi languages. Mushairas were held at Srinagar and Lar, Ganderbal while cultural programme was held at Doda.
