

Academy condoles Prem Singh's demise

JAMMU, MAY 31-

J& K Academy of Art, Culture & Languages has condoled the demise of prominent Punjabi writer and educationist Prof Prem Singh who breathed his last today.

In a condolence message, Secretary Academy, Khalid Bashir Ahmad described Prof Singh's demise as a great loss to Punjabi literature especially in J& K. He said Prof Singh was a known short story writer and pioneer of the movement for promotion of Punjabi language in Kashmir.

He conveyed his heartfelt condolences to the bereaved family and prayed for peace to the departed soul.

As the news of the demise of Prof Singh reached the ongoing Punjabi Conference organized by the Academy the participating writers and lovers of Punjabi literature expressed shock and paid rich tributes to the late writer.
