

3-Day Children's Music Competition Concludes

JAMMU, JANUARY, 10, 2013

The 3-day children's music competition which began at KL Saigal hall here on Monday concluded today. The event was organised by J&K Academy of Art, Culture and Languages. On the concluding day today prizes were distributed among the top notch performers. In amateur group the first prize of Rs 1000/- went to Vishwa Gandharav Kaswalia in vocal light music category.

While the third prize of Rs 600/- was bagged by Shubhan Kaith. No participant was found eligible for the second prize. The certificates of merit were awarded to Shiv Sharma, U. S. Leema and Mukesh.

In vocal classical category the second prize of Rs 800/- went to Amandeep Singh. Nobody qualified for the first and second prize in the category. Aimed at highlighting local talent in the field of music the three day competition was adjudged by T. K. Jalali and Dr. Harish Kaila. On the concluding day today around hundred students from various schools of Jammu district turned up for the event.
