

3-Day Music Competition Inaugurated

Jammu, January, 07, 2013

A 3-day children's music competition got underway at KL Saigal hall Jammu this morning. Organised by J&K Academy of Art, Culture and Languages the competition is aimed at highlighting local talent in the field of music. An annual feature, the event is held on yearly basis in Jammu region of the state.

Around seventy students from various schools of Jammu district participated in the competition on the first day today. Speaking on the occasion Academy's additional secretary, Jammu, Savita Bakshi said that during the past two years the Academy was not able to hold the event for want of funds.

She, however, said that henceforth it would be organised on regular basis.

The three day event, which began today, would provide opportunities to young students of Jammu to showcase their talent in the field of music. Karan Malhotra and Shashi Kumar would be adding music to each performance.

The performance of participants falling in infant category would be adjudged by an adjudicating panel comprising Surinder Singh Manhas and Suraj Singh while that of junior group would be assessed by Sunaina Koul and Prithvi Raj Sharma
