

✚ Academy's Composite Music Evening Leaves Audience Spellbound

Jammu, December, 22, 2012

KL Saigal hall provided the perfect stage, the right ambience and an appreciative audience in a pleasant journey into the world of music this evening.

Prominent and budding singers including Master Kartar Chand, Rashid Jehangir, Sonali Dogra, Tsewang Dorjey, Bashir Mastana and Sidharth Salathia enthralled music lovers to an array of mesmerising numbers,one after the other at the musical event organised by J&K Academy of Art, Culture and Languages.

The audience in the 100-seater KL Saigal hall reeted the singers with thundering rounds of applause.

The programme started with a light Dogri number by Sonali Dogra. Soon to follow were music items by Tsewang Dorjey, Rashid Jehangir, Master Kartar Chand and Bashir Mastana; all sang music numbers that left audience spellbound.

Today's composite music programme was part of Academy's effort to highlight local talent in the field of music.

Besides other dignitaries, secretary Academy, Khalid Bashir Ahmad,advisor SSA, Mohammed Rafi, former director general Accounts and Treasuries, Wali Mohammed Bhat, Pradhuman Singh, Arsh Sehbai,Krishna Kumari and Prof. Lalit Magotra were also present.

*****