

JKAACL ORGANISES HUSSAINI MUSHAIRA

JAMMU, November, 23, 2012

The KL Saigal Hall glittered with a galaxy of poets and fans at a poetic sitting held here under the aegis of Cultural Academy late Friday. Eminent poets from different parts of the state fascinated the audience with their poetic collections mostly aimed at rendering praise to the martyrs of Karbala.

The poets who presented their verses were: Arsh Sehbai, Ushaq Kishtwari, Prem Nath Shad, Bashir Bhaderwahi, Brij Nath Hali, Khurshid Kazmi, Joginder Paul Tahir, Liyaqat Jafri, Sujjad Poonchi, Amin Sabonia, Nisar Sanam Anzar, Wali Mohammed Aseer, Noor Mohammed Majroh, Raj Pal Singh Mastana, Amin Banihali, Jatinder Udhamपुरi, Dheeraj Kaiser, Qazi Mohammed Ashraf, Abdul Waheed Azad, Rahat Hussain Rahat, and Haider Hirat.

Today's mushaira, which saw about 22 poets in attendance, was part of Academy's annual endeavour to render praise to the martyrs of Karbala. The poetic sitting had poets representing languages like Kashmiri, Urdu, Punjabi, Pahari, Gojri and Dogri.

Presided over by noted poet-writer, Arsh Sehbai, the mushaira had eminent poet Bashir Bhaderwahi as guest of honour.

In his presidential remarks, Sehbai praised the poets, representing different languages, for their versatile rendering of poetic verses. He also congratulated the J&K Academy of Art, Culture and Languages for organising a successful Hussaini poetic sitting.

Additional Secretary JKAACL, Shamima Dolwal, while speaking on the occasion, thanked the poets for rendering beautiful verses. The event was moderated by chief editor Gojri, Javaid Rahi.
